

Sixteen Catholic Initiatives Receive Support from William H. Hannon Foundation

August 2016/Santa Monica, CA: The William H. Hannon Foundation, founded by the late Catholic philanthropist and real estate developer William H. Hannon, announced contributions to sixteen organizations involved in Catholic education and social services.

“My late uncle was a devout Catholic, and we continue to honor his commitment to the Church and its good works through various ministries and schools across Southern California,” said Kathleen Hannon Aikenhead, President of the William H. Hannon Foundation.

Organizations receiving funding in the second quarter include:

- Cathedral of our Lady of the Angels
- Good Shepherd Center for Homeless Women & Children
- The Good Shepherd Shelter
- Jesuit Restorative Justice
- Jesuit Volunteer Corps
- Los Angeles Catholic Prayer Breakfast
- Loyola Marymount University
- Marycrest Manor
- Occidental College (Catholic assistant lay advisor)
- Providence High School
- San Fernando Mission
- Servite High School
- Society of St. Vincent de Paul
- St. Catherine of Siena School
- St. Francis Center
- St. Timothy School

The Foundation’s contributions went to tuition assistance at schools, programs that provide services for homeless and abused women and children, as well as a new science lab for middle school students and a backpack giveaway for children living in low-income communities.

“Catholic education and social services provide an invaluable contribution to our region—not just for Catholics, but for everyone. Our Board of Directors recognizes the importance of supporting our Catholic institutions for the benefit of all community members,” Aikenhead said.
