

Loyola Marymount University and Otis College of Art and Design: Two Westchester Schools a Mile Apart

Los Angeles, CA (September, 2010) - The William H. Hannon Foundation has made $22,000 in scholarship donations to Loyola Marymount University (LMU) and Otis College of Art and Design (Otis), both located less than a mile apart in Westchester. The $7,000 donation to LMU will go toward the Chancellor Scholarships Program to assist students from Jesuit prep schools in attaining a LMU education. The $15,000 donation for student scholarships at Otis mirrors previous donations from the Foundation which have helped Otis freshmen from economically underserved communities in Los Angeles who show exceptional academic and artistic ability as well as a history of community service.

“LMU and Otis add to the vibrancy and uniqueness of Westchester and many of their alums, just like my late uncle having attended then Loyola University, choose to work or live in Westchester after graduating. Helping students attend LMU and Otis is good for Westchester today and tomorrow,” said Kathleen Hannon Aikenhead, President of the William H. Hannon Foundation. Aikenhead is a niece of the late William Hannon and has served on the Foundation’s Board of Directors since its founding by her uncle in 1983.
