

William H. Hannon Foundation Supports Shane P. Martin Endowed Scholarship Fund

Santa Monica, CA (May 2018): The William H. Hannon Foundation has announced a $10,000 contribution towards the Shane P. Martin Endowed Scholarship Fund. The fund was established to recognize Martin's quarter-century of service to Loyola Marymount University (LMU) as he leaves LMU to become Provost at Seattle University. The scholarship will be awarded to students pursuing a career in education. Martin was the Dean of LMU's School of Education for the past 14 years.

Martin is credited with the School of Education's significant growth in enrollment and reputation as well as its expanded impact on education locally, nationally, and globally. The formation of the Center for Catholic Education was launched during his tenure as an effort to strengthen the School's many Catholic teachers and principal preparation programs.

"Shane was named Dean of the School of Education when I served as President of LMU. Everyone at LMU is proud of the work Shane has done to launch new programs, drive important research and prepare LMU students to be leaders in our Catholic schools. For all these reasons, the William H. Hannon Foundation is glad to join with many others in saluting Shane's fine work," said Rev. Robert J. Lawton, the 14th President of Loyola Marymount University and a member of the Board of Directors of the William H. Hannon Foundation.
