

Venice Family Clinic's Nurse Practitioner Program

Los Angeles (March, 2009): The William H. Hannon Foundation has provided a $10,000 grant to the Venice Family Clinic to support its Nurse Practitioner Clinic. During the last fiscal year, the Venice Family Clinic provided care to nearly 6,000 children in need. Launched in 1970, the Venice Family Clinic provides free, quality health care to people in need. The Venice Family Clinic is the largest free clinic in the nation. The Clinic provides services to more than 23,500 patients at seven locations on the west side of Los Angeles.

"I am very proud of our many years of support of the Venice Family Clinic," said Kathleen Hannon Aikenhead, President of the William H. Hannon Foundation, adding, "At this time of economic crisis when more and more people are losing their jobs and also their health insurance, the Venice Family Clinic provides a very important safety net for individuals and families."

Those interested in helping the Venice Family Clinic are encouraged to contact Robin Nussbaum, Grants Associate, at 310.664.7924.