

Verbum Dei High School Goes to City Hall

December, 2004: Los Angeles, California

Los Angeles City Councilwoman Janice Hahn (far right) hosts Father John Weling, President of Verbum Dei High School and Kathleen Aikenhead, President of the William H. Hannon Foundation, in her Los Angeles City Hall Council Office for the presentation of a check from the Foundation to support the school's Library Enhancement & Upgrade project.

The William H. Hannon Foundation donated $50,000 to support new collections, resource materials, and technological and furniture upgrades at Verbum Dei High School. Located in Hahn's 15th Council District, Verbum Dei provides 310 young men with an exceptional high school education in the heart of Watts.

"We are proud to support Verbum Dei. Their 2004 graduating class had a 100% college acceptance rate. The Library enhancement program will only help to further ensure Verbum Dei's position as one of the best Catholic high schools in Los Angeles," said Aikenhead.
